Mr. Will Rabbitts, to whom Leach tresented the check, made close inquirie about it at the time, and finally, as a p caution, wrote the word "attest" Leach's name, as the latter claimed that he had seen his mother make the mark. The precaution was a good one. The check was thereupon deposited.

Mrs. Leach claims that she never even saw the check, much less signed it. She says that Leach came to her on one occas-ion with a roll of bills, which he said was $68, and which he claimed had been paid over to him by Messrs. Bowman & Bowman; that he (Leach) further claimed that the money was rightly his, as without his assistance and real Mrs. Leach would hav got nothing. He thereupon returned th noney to his pocket, and she says she per

The West Liberty Hanner and town souncil are at sword's points. The council passed an ordinance prohibiting the sale of liquor in the town. It was held to be in valid by Judge Price, of the common pleas court; then the Banner jumped into the council for passing such an ordinance. The council passed another, and as a thorn in the flesh to the Banner, sent the ordinance to the Bellefontaine Republican for publication. Now the Banner comes charges the council with playing the baby
